Governor William Langer
Bismarck,

The proposed text book code with a provision on price fixing will result in fostering upon the country a grope of speculators and text book brokers without any benefit to the bona-fide text book publishers and will permit them to organize a book trust to the detriment of the consumer and# prove an intolerable monopoly wherein the prices will raise like the present price of lumber which has risen to a point greater than in war times Stop I have wired my protest to general Hugh Johnson and I urge you to join in that protest if you can see your way clearly to so so
