Hon. Lynn J. Frazier
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 13th and note that you also believe I should be at the conference of Governors called by President-Elect Roosevelt.

Mr. James A. Farley called me on the telephone the other day, saying that Roosevelt wants all forty-eight Governors there if they can all come. I will make it if I possibly can, although it is quite hard to get away.

With kind, personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Governor.
