ALMA MATER

(Tune: "Austria")

Hail to thee, O Alma Mater,
Hail to thee with heart and tongue,
Pride we feel and love yet greater,
While we raise the grateful song,
Home of lofty thought and learning
Beacon o'er our western land,
Shrine whence still the ever burning
Torch is passed from hand to hand.

Free as roam our winds the prairie,
Thought and speech here unconfined,
Free as eaglets round their eyrie,
Soar, proud offspring of the mind.
Love of freedom, love of duty,
Love of truth without abound,
Valor in their sons, and beauty
In thy daughters all, be found.

Alma Mater; thine the glory,
If a thought of ours or deed,
Find a place in song or story,
Win endeavor's glorious meed.
Prosper ever, fostering mother;
Down the ages long resound
Loud thy fame, while many another
Finds in thee what we have found.
(John Macnie)

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
Oh, say does the star-spangled banner still wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mist, of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner: Oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then, conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
