SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Recommendation from Director of Curriculum in Medical Technology that Anatomy 302, Principles of Histology, 4 hrs., be dropped from list of required subjects in Medical Technology. Very few Med. Tech. graduates ever work in histologic preparation, usually done by women trained in histotechnique alone. The 4th (clinical) year of training includes one month's experience in histotechnique, sufficient to meet questions in this field in the registry examination for certification.

Recommendation is made that first-year Medical School courses (presently carrying 300 numbers) be re-numbered from 500 to 549, second-year courses (presently carrying 400 numbers) be re-numbered from 550 to 599, and courses now carrying 500 numbers retain the same numbers. Also, undergraduate courses now carrying 100, 200 and 300 numbers will retain the same numbers, except for one change listed below. Specific course number changes and certain other course changes requested are listed below.

MEMORANDUM

To: Faculty Senate

From: Lt. Col. Paul S. Morton, Professor of Military Science

Subject: Provisions and Implementation of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps Vitalization Act of 1964

1. PURPOSE: To summarize the provisions of the recently enacted ROTC Vitalization Act of 1964 which are of importance to UND and to provide current information concerning proposed implementation of this Act. This Act applies to Army, Air Force and Navy ROTC. It consolidates into one bill, continues, adds, and makes changes affecting the Senior ROTC program of the Army and Air Force at UND. Since program objectives and methods of implementation have in the past and will probably continue in the future to differ between the Army and the Air Force programs, the information below reflects The Department of the Army (DA) views and firm or tentative plans for implementation. Your attention is invited to the fact that while the provisions of the Act are known, details concerning plans for implementation are expected to continue arriving for a period of six months or more.

2. BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

a. The current ROTC program at UND includes a four-year, non-scholarship course of instruction leading to a commission as 2nd Lieutenant in either the Regular Army (RA) or the Reserves (USAR). This program is mandatory for the Basic Course (freshmen and sophomores) and optional for the Advanced Course (juniors and seniors). A Flight Training course is also offered to selected seniors, free of charge.

b. DA goal in the past has been to procure 14,000 Lieutenants annually from the ROTC program to meet its minimum needs. Under the new Act it hopes to receive 15,000 junior officers each year. (Its actual needs approximate 17,000 annually.) The Army ROTC program is designed to prepare its students so that upon call to active duty they will be capable of filling junior officer vacancies immediately and with reasonable chance for success. Except for those who participate in the Flight Program and those commissioned in RA (less than 10 percent), DA expects newly commissioned officers normally to serve on active duty for a period of two years if needed; if not needed for the full two years, then to serve a period of not less than three months and not more than six months. RA and Flight students normally serve an active duty tour of three years.

3. KEY PROVISIONS OF THE ROTC ACT OF 1964: This long-awaited legislation became effective on 13 October 1964. It strengthens and expands the ROTC program from an 85 to a 121 million dollar annual program.

a. Student benefits and requirements. (See Inclosure 1 for details.)

b. Continues: Army Flight Training Program for selected seniors.

c. Unchanged: UND has the option to continue the current four-year course without change; with concurrence of appropriate state officials to make it completely voluntary; to discontinue it.

d. New: As a substitute for or in addition to the four-year course above, UND may elect to adopt a new two-year, non-scholarship advanced course. DA expects this program to be used primarily for transfer students who did not have access to the first two years of ROTC instruction, though it appears likely that it will also be open to UND students who for cogent reasons did not take the basic course. Students enrolling in this course will be required to attend a six-week basic camp during the summer preceding the junior year in addition to the six-week camp now required of the four-year students prior to the senior year. Details concerning basic camp location, starting dates, quotas to be assigned, procedures for selection of applicants, etc. are expected from DA prior to 1 March 1965. It is expected that, prior to attending summer camp, a student entering the two-year program will agree to enroll in MS III if selected but will not sign advanced course contracts or enlist until he has been selected and is ready to enter MS III.

e. New: Four-year and two-year scholarship programs are expected to be made available if UND desires them. DA anticipates receiving 1000 scholarships for the school year 1965-66 and an additional 1000 for 1966-67. Programs beyond 1966-67 are not firm at this time. The DA scholarship programs have not been finalized; additional information is expected prior to 1 March 1965.

(1) The four-year scholarship program is expected to offer the same course content as that of the current non-scholarship course. It will be offered to selected incoming freshmen and will provide tuition, books, fees, and a $50 per month retainer fee (as opposed to the $40 per month fee now provided under the non-scholarship course). Graduates will be required to serve on active duty for four years if commissioned. This gives the Army and Air Force a program comparable to the Navy "Holloway Plan."

(2) The two-year scholarship program is expected to be offered only to eligible students who have completed the first two years of ROTC.

(3) Current indications are that for school year 65-66, 600 two-year scholarships and 400 four-year scholarships will be offered by DA.

(4) Precise procedures for selecting individuals for the two-year and four-year scholarships have not been finalized. It is contemplated that two-year scholarships will be awarded based on test results and on the recommendations of an on-campus board consisting of the PMS and representatives of the faculty. The procedures for selecting the recipients of four-year scholarships would be controlled centrally by DA. The intent in both scholarship programs would be to select the best qualified among those individuals strongly motivated toward a long-term career in the service. Necessary controls would be applied to insure a reasonable geographic spread of the successful applicants.

4. RELATED ITEMS OF IMPORTANCE TO UND:

a. A new contract with UND is being prepared and will be dispatched from The Department of Army through channels on or about 15 December 1964. Sometime in January 1965, UND will be approached by the 5th Army Commander or his representative to determine UND desires and to negotiate modifications of the contracts as appropriate.

b. An ROTC curriculum study is now underway and a revised curriculum is expected to be ready for school year 1965-66. No details have been supplied but it appears that any revision will involve setting up the new two-year program.

As a general principle, DA has stated that MS III and MS IV will be the same for students entering either from MS II or from basic summer camp.

c. Since Advanced Course students are now required to enlist in USAR; it is no longer necessary for UND to continue its policy of withholding award of degree to a graduate who did not in good faith live up to the conditions of his Advanced Course ROTC contract. (See Inclosure 1 for details.)

5. UND ACTIONS/DECISIONS (now or in the near future):

a. Current four-year, non-scholarship program: Must decide to (1) continue without change, (2) change the first two years from mandatory to voluntary, (3) discontinue this whole program.

b. New two-year, non-scholarship program: Adopt, in addition to or as a substitute for the four-year course above, or reject it.

c. New four-year and two-year scholarship programs: When all facts are available, decide for or against UND participation in these programs. If the decision is favorable, prepare for scholarship selection board, student scheduling, and changes to UND Catalog if appropriate.

d. Based on decisions above, prepare for negotiation of new contract with DA.

e. Continue or discontinue UND practice of denying a degree to a student who fails to live up to the terms of his Advanced Course ROTC contract.

f. Information: Currently enrolled MS III and MS IV students, with parental consent where required, have almost without exception indicated their interest in and desire for Advanced Army ROTC by enlisting in the USAR and signing new Advanced Course contracts as required by the new law.

5. RECOMMENDATIONS:

a. Continue without change the current four-year, non-scholarship program. This best serves the bulk of UND students.

b. Adopt the new two-year program. This provides an elective program for students who desire it.

c. Approve in principle UND participation in the new four-year and two-year scholarship programs pending availability of full details.

d. Discontinue policy of denying a degree to the student who fails to live up to the terms of his Advanced Course Army ROTC contract.

ROTC VITALIZATION ACT OF 1964 - Student Benefits and Requirements

This long-awaited legislation was signed into law by President Johnson on 13 October 1964. It strengthens and enlarges the Reserve Officers' Training Corps program - from an 85 million to a 121 million dollar annual program. It emphasizes the importance attached to ROTC by our nation and assures continuance of this program in support of our national military establishment.

1. Improved Advanced Course Student Benefits under the New Act:

a. Increases: monthly retainer pay for juniors and seniors in the non-scholarship ROTC program from $27 to $40 per month, for a maximum of 20 months.

b. Increases: advanced summer camp pay from $78 to $120.60 per month. Attendance is required at the end of the junior year, for a period of six weeks. Pay for a six week basic camp in the new two-year program will be $78 per month.

c. Increases: travel pay to and from summer camp from 5¢ to 6¢ per mile.

d. New: provides a one-time uniform allowance of $300 for students commissioned in the Regular Army (RA). Formerly only Reserve officers (USAR) received this allowance.

e. Total pay and allowances now approximate $1400.

f. Continues the Army Flight Training program, free of charge, for selected seniors.

g. New: in the future will provide four-year scholarships for selected incoming freshmen and two-year scholarships for selected juniors. Details of these programs are expected early in 1965.

2. Advanced Course Student Requirements:

a. Unchanged: for enrollment student must volunteer, meet physical, mental and academic requirements, have leadership potential and be accepted by the Professor of Military Science (PMS).

b. Revised: students must sign a contract with the US Army in which he agrees to complete the advanced course, accept a commission if offered and serve on active duty if required. Parental consent is required if student is under 21 years of age.

c. New: student must enlist in a reserve component (USAR) while participating in the advanced course. Parental consent required if under 18 years of age.

d. Unchanged: active duty commitments for USAR officers normally remain at 2 years if needed and as little as 3 months if not needed. RA officers, and USAR officers who participated in the Army Flight Training program as seniors, are expected to serve on active duty for a period of three years.

e. Unchanged: student drop-outs without penalty are still permitted for cogent reasons; such as financial problems, physical disqualification, academic failure and lack of aptitude. Each case is decided on its own merits.

f. New: If it is positively established that a student has willfully attempted to evade the terms of his contract after accepting the benefits of the ROTC program, DA policy is that it may require such student to serve on active duty as an enlisted man for a period of two years. Such cases would be thoroughly investigated by a board consisting of PMS and faculty personnel. For students who participate in good faith the requirement to enlist is an administrative requirement which terminates upon acceptance of a commission or an authorized drop-out.
