October 15, 1951.

Mr. John B. Hart, Executive Director,
North Dakota Indian Affairs Commission, Rolla, North Dakota.

Dear John:

Thank you for your letter of October 1.
I appreciate your giving me the information about Dr. Van Sandt, and I am sure he will be a valuable source for confidential information regarding the health or medical care of Indians.

The Congressman is leaving for North Dakota next week, and will probably be in Williston until January 1.

Thanks again for your good letter and I will probably be contacting the good Doctor in the near future.

Sincerely,

C. J. Barry.
