March 30, 1950.

Mr. Martin Cross,
Elbowoods, North Dakota.

Dear Martin:

Since Mr. Birdick has not yet returned to Washington from his trip to North Dakota, I am acknowledging receipt of your letter of the 21st, with the assurance that it will be referred to Usher immediately upon his getting back to Washington.

Because of the trip, introduction of your bill has been delayed, but I know that he will take care of it when he does get back here.

Did the storm of last weekend do much damage out in your country? I understand that it really made things tough down in Grant County.

Sincerely,

Donnell Haugen.
