May 5, 1950.

Mr. Martin Cross,
Elbowoods, North Dakota.

Dear Martin:

I have just had a letter from Bob Vogel urging me to get busy on the per capita payment bill. I have already referred the proposal to our drafting agency, the legislative council, and they should have it ready in a day or two.

I have been busy getting facts and figures on the flood damage in our state, looking to legislation for federal assistance in repairing some of the damage.

As soon as your bill is prepared, I will mail you a copy.

Sincerely,

Usher L. Burdick, m.c.
