Presenting the Follies...

WHAT IS FOLLIES?

You regular Flickertail Follies fans know the answer. But to you who are here for the first time, to you whose freshman son or daughter will appear on stage shortly, a few words of explanation are in order.

Technically Follies is an amateur variety show. But you will be surprised at the professional smoothness that will be evidenced in the acts. You will be more surprised when you realize that these acts are originated, developed and performed by University students who have had little or no experience with productions of this type. The professional quality, the downright excellence of performance of Follies is what brings fans back year after year.

The perennial success of Follies is primarily due to the hard work and cooperation invested in the production by all concerned. Since Armin Rohde, now a Grand Forks businessman, first developed the idea of Follies in 1925, hundreds of University students have spent countless hours planning, designing, practicing, above all practicing, to produce a long succession of enthusiastically received Follies shows.

The primary purpose of all this effort, of course, has been to produce a good audience pleasing show worthy of the University of North Dakota. But it has brought rewards, too—the recognition and encouragement of talent, the close friendships that can only be developed among people working together for a common goal, the improvement of University relations with potential students and the general public. Financial proceeds from the Follies have benefited numerous worthy University causes; scholarships, the Student Union, the University Development Fund, to name a few.

You will learn more about Follies as you watch the show. And perhaps you, too, will experience the feeling of awe that we have felt, we who have watched the show develop from the first rudimentary ideas to the finished production.

—TRYGVE R. LERWICK
Student Manager

NOTE: Anyone in the audience with a flash camera is asked to check it at the box office until after the performance. TAKING OF FLASH PICTURES DURING THE SHOW IS ABSOLUTELY FORBIDDEN. Official pictures of all the acts will be available. THANK YOU—
