Supp Case

July 9, 1919.

Mr. L. H. Hinegardner,
Sarlus, North Dakota.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your favor of July 7th.

As soon as I received your letter, I called up Judge Nichols and he will appear for you in the Supreme Court free of charge. He feels absolutely confident of winning the case in the Supreme Court and you can depend upon it we will do all that can be done. If you have any suggestions to offer, I will be glad to have you write me at any time.

I am very glad you are satisfied with the way Judge Nichols tried the case. He is one of the best lawyers in the State and recently went down to Bowman and secured a conviction in the case of State v. Hanson in a case of manslaughter.

I was up to Langdon one night and talked with him about the case and he was considerably worried about the outcome of the case. I am glad to know that a conviction was secured.

Yours very truly,

Attorney General.
