May 16, 1950.

Mr. Martin Cross,
Elbowoods, North Dakota.

Dear Mr. Cross:

By this time you have a copy of my bill introduced at your request and a letter from you is probably on its way here.

However, I will be leaving Washington the first of next week to take part in the opening of the League campaign. Perhaps I will see you at Minot or some other point during that time.

Sincerely,

Usher L. Burdick, n.c.
