Hon. William Langer
Senator from North Dakota
Senate Bldg
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Langer:

Recently I wrote to you in behalf of Dr. Martin Sandberger, who is in death row over in Nuernberg. I also sent you such material I had on hand to inform you of the case, in the hope that something could be done in his behalf, inasmuch as it appears that he himself had no part in the Esthonian massacres.

Please add to the material also the testimony I here include.

I should be pleased to learn whether this and other executions can be further stayed, or possibly desisted from entirely.

Thanking you for everything you may be able to do in this matter,

Gratefully and sincerely yours,

T.W. Strieter
