June 8, 1950.

Mr. Martin Cross,
Elbowoods, North Dakota.

Dear Martin:

I have your letter asking my assistance in securing early hearings on HR 8111. I have just talked to Tobey Morris, and he tells me that he is going to have to go back to Oklahoma and will be gone until about the middle of July.

That being the case, there is no possibility of a hearing on this bill before his return. He assures me that he will schedule a hearing on my bill as soon as possible after he gets back.

I will try to notify you of the hearing in plenty of time so that you can make arrangements to come down.

I enjoyed my brief visit at Elbowoods on the 27th, and expect to be back in North Dakota a week or so before election.

I may see you then. With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Usher L. Burdick, m.c.
