St. General Clarence R. Huebner,
Commanding General, U. S. Army Europe,
Heidelberg, Germany.

My dear General Huebner:

Enclosed herewith are several additional documents prepared in behalf of Dr. Martin Sandberger, who is at present in prison at Nuerenberg, under sentence of death.

Like the others sent to you with my letters of May 25th and June 1st, I have received these from the Reverend T. W. Strieter of Our Savior Lutheran Church, Chicago, who believes in the innocence of Dr. Sandberger, and is doing everything possible to obtain a reconsideration of his case.

If you will have these papers placed with the others, where they will be available for use in this case, I will be most grateful.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

WL:mai
