Dear Martin:

The various matters you mention in your recent letter I consider important, but I would not advise you to come down here to see about them at this time, as it is too early in the game to get anything done about them. In fact, I would advise you not to consider coming before the first of April, at least.

The Indian Bureau has given me good cooperation in the various matters I have taken up with them, and I shall be glad to do what I can to help you with the projects you have in mind.

Sincerely yours,

Usher L. Burdick, m.c.
