Lt. General Clarence R. Huebner,
Commanding General, U. S. Army, Europe,
Heidelberg, Germany.

My dear General Huebner:

Enclosed herewith are several more documents bearing on the case of Dr. Martin Sandberger, who is presently confined to prison at Mueremberg, under sentence to be hung.

Like those sent to you with my letter of May 25th, they have been sent to me by the Reverend T. W. Strieter, of Our Savior Lutheran Church, Chicago, in the hope of obtaining clemency for Dr. Sandberger.

If you will add them to the other material which will be used in any reconsideration of his case, I will be most appreciative.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

WL:mai
