Charles North Dakota February 10 1919.

Mr. Langer Attorney General,
Bismark,
North Dakota.
Dear Sir:

Mrs. Hiram Stepp knew the child would be born before we did and threatened the girl to keep her from telling her mother her condition told her she would get an awful beating. She also wanted to spirit the girl away and promised her a home with them somewhere else.

We know that there is a good chance to get good evidence against Hiram Stepp on account of what he tried to do to our younger daughter also who is only ten.

All we want is to have this case tried in a just court.

Yours Truly,

E. L. [REDACTED]
