Dear Reverend Strieter:

Thank you so much for your recent letter, which I received upon my return from a two-weeks' trip to North Dakota.

It was thoughtful of you to send the additional papers relative to the Martin Sandberger case and I am immediately making them available to Senator McCarthy in order that the Special Senate investigating committee may have them at their disposal.

You may be certain that I will do all I can to be of help.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

WL/lbn
