Dear Senator Langer,

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated June 24, 1949 by which you forward several additional documents in behalf of Martin Sandberger, sentenced to death by Nurnberg Tribunal II in Case No. 9, the Einsatzgruppen Case.

In accordance with my previous advice of June 27, 1949 with reference to the affidavits submitted with your letters of May 25 and June 1, 1949 in behalf of Sandberger, I am also forwarding these additional documents to the Legal Division, Office of Military Government for Germany (US) for consideration in connection with the final review of the case.

I have been advised that you will be directly informed by the Office of the Military Governor and the High Commissioner of the decision reached after consideration has been given to all of the documents you have submitted.

Sincerely,

C. R. HUEBNER
Lieutenant General, USA
Acting Commander-in-Chief

Honorable William Langer
