Dear Bill

I can hardly realize that Dan can be gone from us. I have known him 17 years, he was only just a boy when I first met him and I saw him grow to manhood, noble brave and ever true to his friends and the principals that he thought were right. I never knew him to shirk or sidestep no matter how disagreeable the duty might be to him and while I know how much you will miss his service friendship and advice few men in this world over

Could be taken in to full confidence and trusted as Dan Brunner, where there more like him. many thanks for endeavors to get that money for me we are getting along slow enough here I have only one man need another one bad. Lots of good stuff but the going is slow think we will get another man as one is not enough for here to match doing with the Police & Sheriff Office all on the other side when you get things going again let me hear how you and if you need me I will be with you if there will be nothing doing here this year you may be able to place me in some other state where there will be work to be done will write you again in a few days and tell you how things are going here Sincerely yours Kersey E. Gowin
