Report From The Campus

By J. LLOYD STONE

The support given the Development Fund by alumni and friends of the University is surely encouraging. The fund drive started in 1946. Since that time, approximately $300,000 has been allocated to the Student Union project and the artificial ice plant.

x x x

The Student Union is certainly the hub of activities on the campus. As I write this report, there are two conferences being held there: a school for junior bankers and the North Dakota Municipal Officers Association. In addition to this, personnel representatives from the General

Mills Corp. are holding interviews for senior students. Several hundred students and faculty members will be served excellent meals there today at a comparatively low cost. During the day, many students will find recreation in the Student Union, including bowling, ping pong, billiards, or watching TV in the lounge. Still others will use the reading rooms or attend conferences in the various meeting rooms. Alumni who see the Student Union for the first time almost always exclaim, "How did we ever get along without the Student Union?" You made that building possible and it

This past week-end, our hockey team dropped two games to the University of Minnesota. We still have a chance in the national playoffs at Colorado Springs on March 11 and 12. Without artificial ice that could not have been possible.

The swimming pool now under construction in the University fieldhouse will be completed in July. The construction cost will be approximately $85,000. The dimensions of the pool will be 75 feet by 36 feet, the standard length for championship competition, and will have six 6-foot lanes available for racing competition. There will be one-meter and three-meter diving boards and the depth of the pool will be twelve feet under the boards while at the other end of the pool, it will be three and a half feet. The sides of the pool will be marked off in both yards and meters so the pool will be approved for Olympic type competition. The west edge of the pool will be for spectators and will seat 340 people. Eventually, bleachers will be put in on the other side, seating 200 more.

The alumni committee for foundations and grants has some very encouraging reports from one of the large foundations indicating that several research projects will be approved in the near future. On February 17 and 18 we are to meet with the Ford Foundation and Carnegie Foundation representatives in New York City for the purpose of requesting research and scholarship grants for our University.

To Study Research Projects

A committee to look into foundations and grants for research projects of University of North Dakota faculty members was appointed by Henry Lykken of Minneapolis, president of the University Alumni Association.

Committee members are Armin Rohde, chairman of the University Development Fund; John C. West, UND president; D. E. Keefer, dean of the graduate school; and J. Lloyd Stone, Alumni director.

Projects submitted to the committee include:

Drum drying of sodium sulphate by the chemical engineering department; writing of a history of North Dakota, directed by Prof. Elwyn B. Robinson; sociological study of Newtown, N.D., by Prof. Peter Munch; economic and social impact of oil development in the Williston area by Prof. Bernt Wills.

Administration of resource utilization and conservation in the Great Plains by Henry Tomasek; preparation of an ethnic (racial distribution) map of the state by Dr. Munch; study of migratory farm labor in the Red River Valley and the changing role of the rural town, directed by Prof. W. E. Koenker; a study of ants in the state by George Wheeler; tissue culture laboratory and study of the action of drugs by Dr. Benjamin DeBoer; scholarship program for student nurses, directed by Beatrice Horsey.

Evaluation of freshmen for collegiate success by Hermann Buegel and research in interpersonal attitudes among public school children by Raymond Harris.

Shirley Ann Sobolik ex 1949, is assistant head nurse on the surgical floor at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. John L. Peterson (Kathleen McGuckin) ex 1944, is in Germany, where her husband is stationed with the air force. They have adopted a baby boy.
