Honorable William Langer
United States Senate
Washington

Dear Bill:

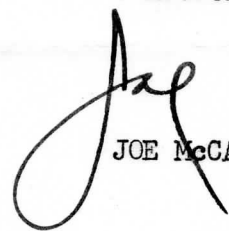

In regard to the case of Dr. Martin Sandberger, the Expenditures Committee decided several weeks ago that it would make no investigation of the Nuremberg cases, as it felt it would have no jurisdiction because of the Four-Power nature of the trials. I assume, therefore, that the executions will be held shortly.

I guess you know I feel about this whole sorry spectacle which we have made of ourselves in connection with alleged American justice. While we may have caught some bad individuals in the net, it was purely accidental.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

JOE McCARTHY
