Mr. Henry G. Owen,
Lock Box 905,
Minot, N. D.

Dear Owen:

I am in receipt of your Report No. 2. Yesterday I was told by Al that you fell and broke your ankle. I was sure sorry to hear that you had had this hard luck. I don't know how long it will be before you are able to get to work again, but presume you are in the hospital getting fixed up.

Any arrangements you may make will be alright, but I would go light on the furniture and rooms and would not rent an office for more than one month. You better use your discretion as to the entire situation.

I am sure pleased to see the start you made but am sorry that you had such hard luck.

Sincerely yours,

Attorney General.
