Chocolate Orange

Green and gold hang from the branches of the drooping pine and gold beads weave through the mementos of our childhood as the tv turns blue. We sigh in contentment at the adventures of Jo, Beth, Amy, and Meg.

Tomorrow, we would receive chocolate oranges in our handmade stockings—the same every year. They would be wedged at the bottom, filling out the knitted toe.
A handy placeholder.

Always, the six of us tried our best to save and section the small gift
throughout the chilled brown months of the new year.

Afterwards, I would remember the scene in little women where the sisters were all gifted sunlit oranges.
My mother told me it was a luxury.

Though, I didn't need that to be explained, as I kept the reflective blue foil wrapped carefully around the orange-tinged chocolate for months to come.
