Mr. E. A. Marshall,

Bismarck, N. D.

Dear Mr. Marshall:

I am to-day in receipt of your favor of the 23rd relative to Senator Lindstrom. Mr. Lindstrom was ^{born} done some two weeks ago and I went over the matter with him most carefully. I am absolutely satisfied from the interview that he is not to blame in this matter and in as much as he secured a divorce and had the papers served on his wife there is nothing the State of North Dakota could do, or any one else. I further became satisfied that the lady in the case was to blame.

Yours very truly,

WL*M

Attorney General
