More Than 150 Attend '58 Reunion

There were many events included in the week of the Camelback Inn reunion but the main event was the Alumni Banquet, December 5, at which J. Lloyd Stone, Alumni Director, served as toastmaster.

Speakers included H. E. Treichler of Richmond, Texas; Dewey Balch, president of the Alumni Association of Minneapolis; Jack Stewart of Phoenix, Ariz., and John C. West, President Emeritus of UND and Jack Fields of Los Angeles. A North Dakota movie produced by the Greater North Dakota Association was shown. Saturday night there was a dinner dance at which many Arizona alumni joined the Nodaks for the evening. More than 150 UND alumni and friends attended.

A committee was named to make plans for the tenth Camelback Inn reunion, which will be held from November 29 to December 8, 1959.

Burdick Donates Papers to University

Usher L. Burdick, retiring North Dakota Congressman, has contributed papers that have accumulated in his 20 years of House Service to the University, Orin G. Libby Historical Manuscripts Collection.

About eight filing cabinets of material have been received from Burdick, according to Glenn Brudvig, the University's order librarian and archivist, who stressed the value of these papers in reflecting the social and economic conditions of that period of North Dakota history.
