Mr. Walter Ferguson
White Earth, North Dakota

Dear Ferguson:

I'm glad to have your letter of the 19th, and not what you say about the Army Engineers buying up enough land for 23 million acre-feet of water under the Garrison Dam. As you know, I have consistently opposed this.

As I told you in my former letter, the best advice I can give you is for you to see Bigelow Neal at Sanish. He's the best person I know for you to contact, and may be able to help you out.

With best wishes and kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Usher L. Burdick, M. C.
