Sheriff's letter, to, all sheriffs.

July 13, 1917.

Hon. H. E. Collicott,

Hettinger, N. Dak.

Dear Sheriff:-

Will you kindly ascertain what drinks are being sold in your county, paying special attention as to whether or not Malta is among them; also please give me the names of the various kinds of malt being sold. Furthermore, let me know if W.B. Right Cut chewing tobacco is being sold in your county. This chewing tobacco is gotten out by the Weyton-Bruton Tobacco Company.

I shall appreciate a prompt reply, as I am desirous of getting this information at the earliest possible moment.

Yours ~~very~~ truly,

W.L.L

Attorney General.

P. S. Please buy samples of ^{all} soft drinks and tobacco, in the presence of witnesses, mark them and hold them while you send me a list of them.

Finished writing to all on the sheriff's list, July 25, 1917.
