August 8th, 1918.

Mr. T. W. Hartung, Sheriff,
Stark Co.
Dickinson, N. Dak.

Dear Sheriff:

I am in receipt of a letter from Theo. Deletzke stating that a family by the name Hohn, the man's name being Jacob Hohn, is having trouble with his neighbors threatening to kill some of them and to burn down their houses. He gave the names of Mrs. A. Kehrli, Mrs. John Knecht, Mr. John Knecht, Mrs. A. C. Palmer and Miss Blanch Florek as people who could give full information regarding the affair. I wish you would be so good as to investigate this matter and take action immediately.

Yours very truly,

Attorney General
