Dear Sir:-

Early this summer we wrote your ^{office} in regard to an application for the state tax we have to pay for our theatre and what the price would be, to date we have not heard a word, so we are writing you personally about it, and would like very much for you to attend to this for us. I am Justice of Peace here and have had several inquiries relative to hunting with dogs this year and so long as the law says "no", but there is no penalty I told them I thought they would be fined. Please advise me on this also.

Very truly yours
Lewis Easton.
