Sioux Award Winners Hold Camelback Reunion

Reservations Urged for Alumni European Tour

Reservations are coming in briskly at the ALUMNI office for the UND Alumni Tour to Europe which is scheduled to start on Wednesday, May 5.

The escorted tour begins with departure from New York City and concludes on May 26. The tour supervisor is Dr. Arne Brekke, UND assistant professor of German and Norwegian, working in conjunction with the Champeau Travel Service of Grand Forks.

Tour officials urge prompt reservations, as many arrangements must be made prior to departure. The tour price is $815 per person, including transportation, hotel accommodations, breakfast and lunch or dinner, guides, tips and many other items.

The UND Alumni Tour will include France, Holland, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and England. Previous Alumni Tours have been well attended, and early reservations indicate a large group for the 1965 tour.

Barger Given Sioux Award

SPEAKS AT U

The new president of Bemidji State College at Bemidji, Minn., gave the mid-year commencement address at UND Jan. 31. Dr. Harry F. Bangsberg began his duties as Bemidji State College president in Sept., 1964.

Robert J. Horgan, '49, was re-elected to a second term as mayor of Dubuque, Iowa, recently. He is the first man in 30 years to hold that post for two consecutive terms. He heads the political science department at Clarke College in Dubuque.

The annual Founders Day banquet is scheduled Friday, Feb. 6 at the University Center Ballroom, with John H. Disher, UND alumnus, as the principal speaker.

A native of North Dakota, Disher earned a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering in 1943 from UND, and is now director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Apollo Test.

U OFFERS SUMMER RESEARCH PROGRAM

Four high school or junior college teachers will be given the opportunity to participate in full-time biology research at UND this summer. Under the sponsorship of the National Science Foundation, UND will offer an 8-week program designed to bring the high school teacher into the research laboratory where he can gain first-hand experience in scientific methodology as well as gain specific knowledge of a specialized area.

University of North Dakota ALUMNI REVIEW

The University of North Dakota Alumni Review is published monthly, except July and August, by the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, N. Dak., for alumni and former students of the University of North Dakota in the interests of the University. Second-class postage paid at Grand Forks, N. D. Change of address and return requested forms should be sent to the University of North Dakota Alumni Review, Grand Forks, N. Dak.

Honor Music Leaders

Hywel C. Rowland, head of the UND Music Department from 1926 to 1960, was honored on Dec. 14 by the University Choral Union. This organization of 400 campus singers dedicated to Mr. Rowland its performance of Handel's "Messiah." At the beginning of the concert, director Robert Van Voorhis introduced Mr. Rowland, who conducted the Choral Union in two Christmas carols.

John E. Howard, head of the UND Band Department from 1927 to 1959, was honored at the October 24 USD-UND football game by the University Band. During the half-time performance, band director Michael Polovitz introduced Mr. Howard, who conducted the UND Band in a performance of the University of North Dakota March. The half-time performance, which was dedicated to Mr. Howard, concluded with his conducting the UND Band and the spectators in the UND Alma Mater.

Carol Miles Humpstone, conductor emeritus of the UND Varsity Bards, had been honored earlier by that organization at its Tenth Anniversary Concert directed by James Fudge. Many former members of the group to sing "Let There Be Music" under Mrs. Humpstone's direction.

REPORT from the CAMPUS

By J. LLOYD STONE

The 15th Annual Reunion at Camelback Inn in Phoenix, Arizona, started on New Year's Eve, December 31, 1964, with several UND alumni in attendance at Jack Stewart's New Year's Party. Those present were:

Dr. and Mrs. George Hallenbeck, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Art Robertson, Chevy Chase, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McCarthy, San Pedro, Calif.; Mrs. Charlene Reeder, Clinton, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kirkness, Winnipeg, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lloyd Stone, University of North Dakota.

Jack and Louise Stewart joined the North Dakota table and helped bring in the New Year.

Arrivals on January 1st included: Sybil and Milton Kelly, Devils Lake, N. D.; Mibs and Tom Whelan, Grand Forks and St. Thomas, N. D.; Mary Jane and Bill Durnin, Long Beach, Calif.; Lil and Fred Davidson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Lloyd Nelson, San Marino, Calif.

From then until the reunion ended on January 10, there wasn't a dull moment for the Nodaks at Camelback Inn.

Several observations might be made concerning the 15th reunion. First is the fact that many of the same alumni were there as in the first years. Approximately 35 of the alumni in attendance had been there for more than 10 of the reunions. One couple, the S. S. Rollers of Albuquerque, N. Mex., had attended 14 of the reunions. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Boise and Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Besse of Silver City, N. Mex., had planned to come for their 15th reunion, but had to cancel because of weather and illness.

Our hosts, Jack and Louise Stewart, are always the same. One newspaper reporter said that he had never felt so much at home at any hotel, motel or inn in his life as he did at Camelback. He said he always felt at home until he got ready to pay the bill! For the Nodaks, of course, the bill is reduced and the rates are so attractive that we can't afford to stay away. Jack makes a generous contribution in making the Inn available to us for this wonderful reunion.

We had the largest crowd in our 15-year history—45 to 50 more than last year. There were 225 in attendance Friday night for the banquet.

A thoughtful addition to the daily program was the noon service in Lincoln Memorial Chapel, conducted by Louise Stewart. The Bible passages and her short talks were inspirational and helpful. Her prayers were beautiful and inspiring. One noon, Dewey Balch was our chapel leader, and I want to thank him, too, for sharing thoughts which meant much to his good friends.

On Tuesday, January 5, Louise Stewart entertained all of the Nodaks at the Jack Rabbit Casa at a Mad Hatter Tea. Several prizes were given. The winners of the different hat categories were:

Mrs. Thomas Whelan, prettiest design; Gordon Martin, most cosmopolitan; Mrs. Dean Wellman, fanciest western design; Mrs. Verna Stumpf Paterson, most unique design; Mrs. Lloyd Stone, best desert hat; Mrs. Milton Kelly, most humorous design; Mrs. Alfred Meeg, the "nut-megiest" hat.

On Wednesday night, we gathered for a dinner-dance and fashion show in the Peace Pipe Room. We enjoyed the dancing and the visiting there. On Friday night, the alumni banquet provided an unusually interesting program. Dewey Balch of Minneapolis served as Master of Ceremonies. Gordon Martin, Costa Mesa, Calif., led the group singing. Before the dinner, we joined in our Alma Mater. Dr. Otis Simenstad, Osceola, Wis.; President of the Alumni Association, had to leave for Chicago on Thursday and for that reason was unable to attend the banquet. Sybil Kelly, North Dakota Development Fund Chairman, represented the 50 Development Fund Chairmen telling of University projects and the Development Fund. In her talk, she said that she hadn't expected to win a prize as a "Bathing Beauty," but was pleased to accept the award, which was presented to her at the Mad Hatters Tea, on Tuesday afternoon. Sybil introduced other State Fund Chairmen in attendance:

Lambert Huppeler, New York; Art Robertson, Maryland; Verna Paterson, Nevada; Mrs. S. S. Roller, New Mexico; Raymond Richards, Oklahoma; Dr. William Durnin, Southern California.

The University presented a Sioux award posthumously to Grant Nelson. Mrs. Margaret Nelson of Roswell, N. Mex., accepted the award. In her acceptance speech, she said that "Bub" had always wanted to establish a scholarship at the University of North Dakota. She presented the $5,000 scholarship in his name and explained that this scholarship had been planned before Bub's death.

Mr. Tom Whelan presented the Sioux Award to Tom Barger of Saudi Arabia. Tom Barger was the main speaker at the banquet and gave one of the most clever and educational talks we've ever had at Camelback. It is easy to see why he has risen to the top as an oil company executive. In an earlier issue of the Alumni Review we gave the biographical sketches of Grant Nelson and Tom Barger and I will not repeat them here. Needless to say, they are both deserving men, and the Alumni Association was proud to present these Sioux Awards.

President Starcher sent a letter of greeting to all of the Camelback Inn-mates and mentioned the progress at the University. Dr. Min Hin Li—for the 15th year in a row—sent orchid leis, anthurium and corsages for our special guests. By a standing vote of thanks, I was asked to express appreciation to Dr. and Mrs. Min Hin Li for their

Sioux Basketball, Hockey Teams Have Conference Title Hopes

The Bill Fitch Basketball Co., a subsidiary of UND, continues to sell its product. And the Bob Peters Hockey Co., also a subsidiary, is doing right well, too.

The cagers head into the second semester with a 15-won, 4-lost record and in first place (5-0) in the conference. The Sioux have only seven games left on the schedule, four of which are at home. Many are predicting a conference championship for the young Nodak hardwood performers.

The big feather in the Sioux war bonnet this season is a 61-54 home triumph over the U. S. Air Force Academy before over 6,000 fans. The Sioux have lost only to powerful Bradley, NIT champion, in overtime, to Chicago powers DePaul and Loyola and to Iowa of the Big 10. Victories have been over Chico (Calif.) State 77-65, Superior (Wis.) State 106-60, Bemidji State 101-78, Montana U 71-62, Montana State 71-69, St. John's 80-62, Moorhead State 87-53, Concordia 80-65, Air Force, State College of Iowa 69-53, Augustana 84-61, S. D. State 84-72, Morningside 66-55, South Dakota 58-52 and Minnesota Morris 104-63. The Chico, Superior, Bemidji, Air Force, Augustana, S.D. State and Morris wins were at home, the rest on the road.

Special Note: If you cannot find UND basketball or hockey scores in your newspapers, call your sports editor and ask him to get them. He will if you request it. This helps our image!

Two Memorial Scholarships Established at University

The establishment of two memorial scholarships at UND was announced at a banquet at the 15th annual UND alumni reunion at Camelback Inn, Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 8.

Mrs. Grant Nelson, Roswell, N. Mex., announced a $5,000 memorial scholarship fund in the name of her late husband, Lt. Col. Grant Nelson. Mr. Nelson, a 1925 graduate of UND, died in January, 1964, in Roswell, where he had been assistant professor of chemistry and chairman of the visual aids department at New Mexico Military Institute.

Born and reared in North Dakota, Nelson attained honors as a football player at UND. He received his master's degree from the University of California. In 1943, he joined the faculty of New Mexico Military Institute as a captain. He was promoted to major in 1951 and to lieutenant colonel in Oct., 1963.

The second scholarship will honor the late Mrs. Sylvia

Steele Nelson and is being established by her husband, Lloyd Nelson of Los Angeles. The late Mrs. Nelson, a UND alumna, was formerly a resident of East Grand Forks, Minn. Lloyd Nelson is a native of Grand Forks. He is a 1932 graduate of UND in business administration. Since 1945 he has been president of the Cal-Dak Company, a manufacturing firm with factories in Colton, Calif., Little Rock, Ark., and Toronto, Ont., Canada.

At the banquet, a Sioux Award was presented posthumously to Lt. Col. Grant Nelson in recognition of his services to education and his loyalty to UND. His wife accepted the award. About 225 persons attended the banquet.

Dr. John Linfoot, '55, was the leader of a University of California team of physicians who successfully treated victims of Cushing's Syndrome, "a rare but devastating disease," by use of new proton beam of unusual intensity.

generous gifts and their loyalty to the University.

Ruth Perrott of Los Angeles, Calif., wrote a letter to all of our Nodak Inn-mates, in which she expressed appreciation for friendships made in other years with our loyal UND'ers. Ruth is expecting to have surgery soon, and our prayers and good wishes go with her.

Special thanks for the arrangements for the banquet and for the outstanding job of M.C.ing go to Dewey and Borgia Balch of Minneapolis.

On Saturday night, a dinner-dance in the Peace Pipe Room concluded the program for the Nodaks. This, too, was a memorable evening and made it possible for all of us to have a final visit and bid our farewells.

The Inn is a restful place. Golf, swimming, shuffle board, bridge and just visiting occupy the hours for the guests. There is no regimentation or scheduling of hours. Most of the ladies found time to shop in Scottsdale—an interesting western town—only three miles from Camelback. The Inn and the surrounding gardens seem more beautiful each year. The popularity of the Inn — nationwide — has caused the Inn to grow and expand to take care of more and more guests.

The following were in attendance at the reunion:

Mr. and Mrs. Rube Aasland, Hereford, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Anderson, Suffield, Conn.; Mrs. Estelle Archdeacon, Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. R. L. Baughman, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bjornson, Vista, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boyd, and Joan, Glendale, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Brooke and family, Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Brown, Newport Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Walter Burkman and sister, Balboa Island, Calif.; Mrs. G. T. Challoner, Dinuba, Calif.;

Loyal Alumni Build Development Fund Total

December was a dandy for the Development Fund! National Chairman William Micklin reports that more alumni sent in more money in December than in any previous month in the Development Fund's history.

"Almost 500 loyal and generous Sioux supporters contributed about $18,100 in December," Micklin said. "This puts us well on our way toward meeting our goal of $75,000, and indicates the effectiveness of the efforts of our hard-working campaign chairmen."

The long-awaited percentage rating of the states for the challenge issued by Missouri Chairman "Pete" Barnes has been compiled. The first report on this contest, as of December 31, finds Delaware showing the "Show Me" state.

Chairman Owen Webster must have used some special magic on his Delaware alumni—40% of them have contributed already. Maine was not far behind: their percentage was 37.5. And Virginia, with 26.3%, just squeezed by Alabama's 25.7%.

A second percentage rating will be figured as of February 28, according to J. Lloyd Stone, alumni director of the Fund. "In the meantime, the Missouri alumni will no doubt be hearing from Chairman Barnes," Stone speculated.

"The rating of all the states is listed in this issue of the REVIEW. If our alumni don't like the position their state is in, they should change it for the next report by sitting right down and mailing a check," suggested Micklin.

A combine-velo mailing will be sent from the University this month, and plans are to wind up the drive in May.

Martin Named To Miami Job

Amos Martin, who earned his law degree at UND, has been named as executive vice president and general manager of the Miami-Dade Chamber of Commerce, taking over his new duties on Jan. 15.

Martin, 43, was general manager of the Evansville, Ind., Chamber for the past 4½ years. During his tenure, the membership income in that city doubled, and his abilities drew national attention. His new position in Florida is considered one of the top civic association jobs in America.

Following his graduation from UND, Martin served as vice president of the Grand Forks Chamber of Commerce. He is married, the father of four, and served as a flight and ground instructor at Pensacola Naval Training Station during World War II.

I. R. Rector, '38, has been appointed to a new executive marketing post with Burroughs Corporation, and will now be located in Detroit with his wife and four children. Rector will be manager of Burroughs six western U. S.

marketing districts. He has been with the firm for 25 years. While manager of the firm's operations in Fargo and Minneapolis, he won awards for national sales achievements.

BASKETBALL, HOCKEY

River Classic tournament during the holidays by sweeping aside St. John's, Moorhead and host Concordia at Moorhead, Minn., with little trouble.

The basketball team has been ranked 7th in the United Press International small college weekly basketball poll and before the end of the season we hope to have the team ranked in the AP poll, in which we have gotten votes.

The hockey team has a 6-2 Western Collegiate Hockey Association record and leads that league. In recent weeks we have beaten Michigan at Ann Arbor by 7-3 and 4-2 and potent Denver U here, 4-2 and 5-4, and Michigan Tech here by 2-1 and 6-3. Our two losses were to Tech at Houghton by 3-2 in overtime and 5-2 early in the season.

So it looks like more championships, to go along with our great football title in the Conference, are a distinct possibility.

MED SCHOOL GRANT

The University of North Dakota School of Medicine has received a grant of $37,373 from the Public Health Service of the National Institutes of Health, according to Dr. T. H. Harwood, dean of the Medical School. This is a renewal of a grant received in previous years.

GRAND FORKS QUARTET: Enjoying a break from the snowy north are the Claire Moores and Kenneth "Pinky" Mullens of Grand Forks.
