Mr. Owen Morken
Superintendent, Indian Agency
Rolla, North Dakota

Dear Mr. Morken:

I am enclosing a letter I received from Mr. James Black Dog of Emmet, North Dakota, in regard to his sister's need for money to put running water into her house in Minot. I presume she bought the house with money she received as part of a per capita payment, and want to ask your co-operation and help in getting enough more to add this necessary improvement to her property.

Please let me know as soon as you can what the situation is. I have talked with the Bureau here, and they tell me that this matter will have to be processed through the agency.

The sister's name is Lorraine Perkin.

Sincerely yours,

Usher L. Burdick, M. C.
