N v. 12, 1919.

Mr. P. B. Rogglie,

Esmond, N.D.

Dear Mr. Rogglie:

I am in receipt of your favor of Nov. 7th and was very glad indeed to get your letter, enclosing plea signed by T. H. Druen. Shortly after I became Attorney General. I made a thorough investigation of the Druen case, and there is absolutely no question but that he killed his baby when he shot at his wife, who had obtained a divorce from him. His sentence was cut five years and it is my opinion that that is more than he is entitled to. The man received absolute justice.

With kind regards I am,

Very truly yours,

Attorney General.
