Barge for Fort Berthold Indians

May 22, 1957

The Honorable Clifton E. Mack
Acting Commissioner
General Services Administration
Federal Supply Service
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Mack:

This acknowledges your letter with reference to the possibility of obtaining a barge for ferrying trucks across the lake formed by the Garrison Dam.

I am greatly pleased by the favorable tone of your letter, and shall look forward with much anticipation to hearing from you again soon, in the hope that suitable arrangements can be made for acquiring such equipment for the use of the people on the Fort Berthold Reservation.

Sincerely yours,

Usher L. Burdick, M. C.
