Miss Anna Bortret,
Beulah, N. Dak.

Dear Miss Bortret:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 10th this morning and note that you are still living at Johnsons. I don't believe you can do any more good there and I think you had better come down here and then you and I or you and one of my assistants can go to Missouri. I should like to have you come down as soon as you get this letter because I don't believe you can do any more good up there. After we see the young fellow we can do better.

Yours very truly,

Attorney General.
