Hon. Ralph Hoyt Case
Southern Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Case:

In the temporary absence of Senator Langer from his office, I am taking the liberty of acknowledging your letter of October 7th giving us the information requested by Martin Cross concerning the appropriations for use by the Tribal Council. I also want to thank you for the additional information which you gave us in this connection.

With kindest regards and best wishes,

Sincerely,

WL:fs
