The following members of the Senate were absent:

Cherry, Emily	Kostrzewski, Diana	Tande, Brian
Cowdrey, Hunter	Murphy, Eric	Wynne, Joshua
Dodge, Michael	Sens, Donald	Xiao, Feng

4.

Ms. Legerski called the meeting to order and made the following announcements and opening remarks.

a. Reminder of goals for the upcoming year:

- Reignite an understanding of and commitment to shared governance at UND.
- Support individual and institutional commitments to diversity, inclusion, justice.
- Survive the global pandemic and position ourselves to thrive into the future.

b. Upcoming events to take note of:

- Well Being and Mindfulness event, November 13 from 12:00 to 12:45 p.m.
- Textbook adoptions for Spring are due October 30 using Follett Discover. To access Follett Discover, log into Blackboard, click on "My UND" and look for Follett Discover on the left side. Phone and email orders will no longer be accepted. If you do not have any orders, please also log in and click the option indicating that you do not have a book for the course, etc. Ms. Legerski reported that the process was very easy fast.
- The Task Force on the Future of Education at UND is accepting nominations through November 1, so if you would like to nominate yourself or someone else for this group, please do so by then.

c. Reminder of Senate Committee report deadlines. Please work with your committee to put together your report. The following reports are due or overdue:

- Due October 22: Honorary Degrees, Standing Committee on Faculty rights
- Due November 19: Faculty Handbook. Legislative Affairs, Library

d. The Village resources available to faculty and staff (the Village Rep) will be rescheduled for the December 3 Senate Meeting.

e. Ms. Storrs and Ms. Wages reported on the process of evaluating Deans. They discussed the ad hoc committee that was formed and how their proposal did not go forward to be implemented. Ms. Storrs stated that all deans and administrators are evaluated within the current policy and the 360 evaluation that is completed at the end of the contract. This year, an additional layer of evaluation has been added starting in January. All department/chair leadership will have an opportunity to complete a survey about the dean's performance as well as additional staff that report directly to the dean. There are different categories that the survey will contain for employee input. This information goes to deans and the provost for annual raises. Deans do their own evaluation and send to the provost and they meet to discuss the evaluation and set goals.

Ms. Wages stated that the NDUS policy can be found in the faculty handbook. They looked at the UND HR evaluation policy and developed a similar process for the deans. This is for the last year and also to set goals for the next year. The Direct Report process will be incorporated into the annual evaluation process at the end of this year. If they have a 360 review, that information may be included into this year-end evaluation.

f. Stephanie Walker presented an update and shared photos of the Chester Fritz library renovations.

g. A Council of College Faculties update was given by Tom Petros. He reported on a discussion on proposed changes in the schedule. The Chancellor wants all campuses to have the same schedule, to include after Thanksgiving and Spring Break 2021. There will be more flexibility in course offerings as we go forth, even after COVID. Mr. Petros also reported on concerns about electronic open resources and how this will be moving forward.

- h. Megan Wasylow gave a Staff Senate update. She stated that there are 225 "31 days of Glory" tickets left to purchase. UND Staff Senate will be bringing forward a proposal for the use of staff vouchers to use at any college, not just where they are employed. A Student Government Update was given by Matthew Ternus. They have been talking with different groups about COVID, including the GF City Council and are happy with the interaction. Counseling services met with student leaders to see how they can work together.
- i. Mr. Ternus reported that Student Senate passed a resolution supporting the S/U grading scales such as spring 2020 term. Student Senate did not meet due to a student/parent forum that was held with the President.
- j. Provost Storrs made the following statements: thanks for participating in the town hall forum; regarding the Start and Stop dates, if any institutions want to go online that is up to them, it does not have to be approved by the NDUS system; Ms. Storrs is excited about the new Task Force on the Future of Academics and how there is so much interest in this group; which will, hopefully meet by the end of November.

Quorum was established.

6.

Without exception the minutes of the October 1, 2020 meeting were approved and filed.

7.

Ms. Legerski gave a Senate Executive Committee (SEC) report on SEC actions:

- a. The SEC voted to approve Faculty Handbook updates related to recent federal Title IX policy changes. No comments on the policy were received from the campus community during the open comment period, but there are a few additional changes that needed to be made which were mostly housekeeping changes to update office/policy titles and procedures throughout the Faculty Handbook;
- b. The SEC voted to support the Student Senate resolution "Support for Reinstating Spring 2020's Student Preference Grading System for the Fall 2020 Semester;
- c. The SEC voted to approve the Faculty Handbook Course Syllabus Policy proposal, which would be included in Section III: Teaching Policies and Procedures, adding subsection XIII. Course Syllabi; policy would require instructors to provide access to a course syllabus at the beginning of the semester for all regular on-campus and online courses.

The 20-minute question period was opened at 4:11:

Ms. Barkdull thanked everyone for the information that was brought forth today regarding questions from the September and October Senate meetings regarding the evaluation of deans. Ms. Storrs talked about the 360 evaluation that is in place and the new portions that are being implemented. Faculty can provide feedback but they hope that it is included in the evaluation. Ms. Wages added that benefited faculty and staff from the college will have input as well and it will be anonymous. Also, if a specific college wants to explore more options, they would work with the President to implement something new through shared governance. Documentation can be provided on the subject of 360 evaluation. This updated annual evaluation will also apply to interim deans.

The question period closed at 4:23 p.m.

9.

The annual report of the Essential Studies Committee was accepted and filed.

10.

The October 1 and November 5, 2020 University Curriculum Committee reports were reviewed. Mr. Munski moved to approve both reports. The motion was seconded by Mr. Iseminger. Mr. Munski and Ms. Alberts made a friendly amendment to remove ART 114 from the report until a later time. Ms. VanLooy seconded and the motion carried.

11.

Ms. Legerski introduced the Faculty Handbook Title IX policy updates. Mr. Liang made a motion to approve the changes, Ms. Kenville seconded, and the motion carried.

12.

Ms. Legerski introduced the Student Government resolution Supporting Reinstating Spring 2020's Student Preference Grading System for the Fall 2020 Semester. Mr. Jendrysik stated that he thought the resolution was a reasonable accommodation for the students during this time.

Mr. Ternus gave some background information. They did a survey with 1,400 responses in the first 24 hours; 67% indicated they want the spring 2020 policy. UND is not alone in this policy; NDSU and Minot State are trying to implement this as well. Mr. Ternus Matt brought up how this situation was affecting students and how stressful it is for students. He feels that UND should break down barriers for their students. This policy does not apply to graduate classes.

Ms. Alberts made a motion to accept the resolution regarding s/u grading. Mr. Jendrysik seconded, and the motion carried.

13.

Mr. Liang motion to extend the meeting to 5:15 p.m. Mr. Perkins seconded, and the motion carried.

14.

The Faculty Handbook Course Syllabus Policy proposal was reviewed. This proposal asks for course syllabus consistency across the board. Mr. Munski made a motion to approve the course syllabus policy. Mr. Perkins seconded the motion. Discussion ensued. Ms. Alberts moved to table the motion, Mr. Munski tabled the motion. Ms. Alberts withdrew her motion. This ended the discussion and it will be brought forth at the next Senate meeting.

15.

The meeting adjourned at 5:15 p.m.

Marci Mack, Acting Secretary
University Senate

Faculty Handbook Committee – Senate Report of Activities F2019 – Sp2020

The Faculty Handbook Committee met 4 times over the academic year - Oct 29, Jan 21, Feb 4, April 14

In order to address student leader concerns regarding student well-being in the weeks prior to and during finals week, we explored ideas for how we might develop policy to support student well-being at the end of the semester. One thing we discussed was working with the Academic Policies and Procedures committee and the NDUS Academic Affairs committee to explore the possibility of adding additional reading and review days that would allow students more time between the end of classes and the beginning of final exams. This included reviewing the policies and practices of other universities. In consulting NDUS policy on the Academic Calendar, we discovered that due to system requirements regarding the minimum number of class days, it would not be feasible to add additional reading and review days without extending the length of the term. This discussion did not result in any new policy recommendations related to the academic calendar or reading and review days.

Rather, in order to assist student well-being at the end of the semester, the bulk of our time over the semester was spent exploring and developing a policy related to course syllabi. This involved researching syllabi policies at other universities, including several peer institutions and the policies of other NDUS institutions. Our research revealed that UND was behind the curve in regards to a course syllabus policy - most other institutions require faculty to provide students with a course syllabus. We looked at the policies of several institutions and the syllabus templates of several programs within UND to arrive at a list of core elements that all course syllabi should include. We also worked to include language within the policy that would allow flexibility for alternative courses and allow colleges and departments to develop additional or alternative requirements in order to meet their disciplinary and professional needs.

At the end of the Academic Year a syllabus policy was drafted but not yet approved by the committee due to the chaos of suddenly shifting to online and work from home for the university due to COVID 19.

*Committee Co-Chairs

The overall theme for the 2019-2020 academic year for the University Assessment Committee was to keep in mind the things learned from the previous year when we met with the Department Chairs and discussed their views on the assessment committee. We learned that the Chairs would appreciate a shorter turnaround time on the feedback regarding their reports.

Right away in the Fall, Tim Burrows the Director of University Assessment communicated directly with the department chairs and program directors about the October due date to turn in their department's assessment report. There was a 94% completion rate of assessment reports submitted in AY 2019-20. This made the committee's job a lot easier as we did not have to hunt down individual departments for their reports. The committee was able to review and comment on all reports in the AY2019-20 review cycle by the middle of February instead of May (as had been the case in previous years). Tim was able to get the committees feedback to the departments within a couple months instead of 6 months. We were told that the comments meant a lot more as the material was still fresh in their minds.

The committee was tasked to review the following materials for the 2019-2020 year:

- Co-Curricular Department Assessment Plans
- Various surveys used by the University
- University Assessment Plan
- College of Nursing and Professional Disciplines Assessment Reports
- School of Medicine and Health Sciences Assessment Reports
- College of Education and Human Development Assessment Reports

Due to recent changes in thinking and University organization the Co-Curricular Departments and Survey were removed from our to do list. The Graduate School report was tabled until the 2020-2021 year.

The University Assessment Plan needed a lot of updates due to the recent changes to University structure. This was updated and then sent to the University Senate and was approved.

As stated previously, the committee was able to meet throughout the Fall semester and a few times in the Spring semester and had all of the departmental reports reviewed by the middle of February. Feedback was shared with the departments shortly after their report was reviewed.

An additional accomplishment dealing with assessment is with the university assessment website due to UND updating of its websites. Tim Burrows worked to get the website to reflect the current assessment requirements.

During the last assessment meeting it was discussed that future meetings could be held via an online platform as we were able to hold some of the meetings this way. We all agreed it worked and it might be easier than trying to find meeting space. We also elected in the 20-21 Co-Chairs: Amber Johnson and Deb Worley.

Respectfully Submitted by

Leslie Martin and Karina Knutson

2019-20 University Assessment Committee Co-Chairs

University Senate Library Committee
Annual Report for 2019-2020 Academic Year
Fall 2020

Membership

Colt Iseminger (Chair-Aviation), Stacy Bjorgaard (Engineering), Tammy Oltz (Law), Mark Jendrysik (Political Science), Michael Dodge (Space Sciences), Isaac Karikari (Social Work), Barbara Lewis (Music Education), Linda Ray (Medical Laboratory Sciences), Mark Patterson (Graduate Student), Gracie Lian (Undergraduate Student)
Ex-Officio: Stephanie Walker (Dean of Libraries & Information Resources)

Committee Activities

The committee elected Colt Iseminger as Chair for 2019-2020.

The committee met approximately monthly to discuss library issues, detailed below.

- New Library Services Platforms (LSP): All UND Libraries put in extensive work this year on the system conversion from Ex Libris's Aleph platform to their ALMA platform. (Note: Ex Libris is phasing out support for Aleph.) This was a statewide system conversion. The ODIN (Online Dakota Information Network) office, which handles LSP support for 63 North Dakota libraries, issued 2 RFPs in 2018, for new LSPs. LSPs are the complex, multi-module software libraries run on, for almost everything they do, including cataloging, circulation, the public catalog, acquisitions, and many other functions. Last year, for the first time, ODIN issued separate RFPs for academic libraries and for public & special libraries. This is a major beneficial change. Academic libraries have very different needs from public/school libraries, e.g. academic libraries do not need a children's interface. ALMA was selected for academic libraries, and Polaris for public/special libraries, as reported in 2019. This is a major project; it has consumed and will continue to consume much of the time of over a dozen librarians and other staff across UND Libraries through 2022, in total (though happily, they are over halfway through). There was a huge amount of training and preparation this year, and the system went live in late July 2020. Ever since, the Chester Fritz Library (CFL) have been doing ongoing training, data clean-up, and testing. LSP conversions normally do require 12-18 months of clean-up; there are tens of millions of records across many libraries, and in this case, multiple institutions. Shelby Harken (Head of Technical Services) and Laurie McHenry (Law Library) both served on the Academic Libraries RFP Committee. Shelby largely wrote the RFP; this is her 4th system conversion. Shelby and Laurie have been spearheading the implementation at UND, but many catalogers, reference librarians, and Access Services staff have also been involved. For SMHS Library Resources, Erika Johnson has been the point person. Shelby is also providing extensive assistance across NDUS.
- ODIN: Even after the cost of the system conversion, the ODIN bill remains well below past heights, at just over $100,000; the CFL also now have, on the invoices, a full explanation of how the bill is calculated.
- Renovations: Library renovations were a major discussion topic. Much advance work was done before renovations began in November 2018, and renovations proceeded, with adjustments due both to COVID and to opportunities that arose during the year. CFL's building was closed for some weeks, along with other campus buildings, but renovations continued throughout, and Dean Walker came to campus virtually every day to oversee renovations – which in 2020 are now close to completion. Major items remaining include the South Tower (the South Entrance will remain closed until it is complete, for safety) and the Reading Room. Many smaller items remain, e.g. offices for GovDocs/Periodicals staff, etc., but the CFL expect renovations to be largely concluded by the end of 2020 or early 2021. Some highlights include:

- Entrances: The main grand entrance, with a lovely staircase, is complete; the south entrance will open late 2020, once exterior work is complete.
- Compact Shelving: The CFL have a large amount of compact shelving in 2 areas, 1 public and 1 staff-only. Government documents, oversize collections, bound periodicals, and some lesser-used items are in open shelves. Rare, near-rare, and archival materials and microforms are in staff-only areas.
- Core Library/Collections: The CFL retrieved all items stored in the Core Library. Some small runs of periodicals were weeded as they had bought full digital backfiles.
- UIT: UIT has fully moved in, and their senior management and that of CFL has regular communications meetings. The CFL have found multiple areas where they can collaborate on projects as well, e.g. equipment check-out via the LSP.
- Coffee/Vending Area: Due to many factors, Dining Services will not open a full-service coffee shop in the CFL; however, they will have upscale vending available, including coffee and fresh food capacity, though exactly what will be offered at what times will depend on traffic, post-pandemic.
- Large Study Space – 1st Floor – Open: Near the “coffee/vending” area.
- Large Study Space – 2nd floor – Open: The CFL completely renovated the 2nd floor outside the Reading Room, tearing up damaged tiles (and removing asbestos) and installing UND carpet, relocating bound periodicals to compact shelving, and installing furniture repurposed from the Memorial Union.
- Large Study Space – 3rd floor – Open: There is terrific new study space on the 3rd floor, along with displays of popular reading material and DVDs (courtesy of Prof. Chris Jacobs' estate.)
- Instruction Room 108: This teaching space was completely renovated. It is the smaller of 2 spaces.
- Learning/Instructional Space 301: The CFL had previously only had Room 108 for instruction, and as it fits just 24 students at best, this was often insufficient. They built a new teaching/instruction/learning space in Room 301, which had formerly been storage for additional state government documents and other items, which were relocated to compact shelving. The space is currently being used by subject librarians for virtual instruction.
- Fire Sprinkler System, Ceilings, Lighting, Asbestos Removal: The CFL installed the first-ever fire sprinkler system in the building, and simultaneously replaced ceiling tiles and lighting, and removed asbestos in most areas.

- Windows: As part of a campus-wide energy efficiency initiative, the CFL were able to get new windows throughout.
- Wi-Fi: Wi-Fi access points throughout the building was upgraded to Gigabit throughput, and 10-Gigabit in the AI Lab.
- Roof, Cooling Tower: The roof was replaced, as was 1 of 2 cooling towers.
- Carpet: Mismatched, peeling carpets throughout the building (in various shades of burnt orange, lime green, beige, and grey) were removed, and replaced with UND carpets in most areas, or laminate flooring where appropriate.
- Accessible Bathrooms & Stalls: New accessible bathrooms were added to the ground floor.
- Knowledge Commons: Working with TTaDA, the Writing Center, Career Services, and UIT, the Library created a new Knowledge Commons – an Academic One Stop. Due to COVID, several units are temporarily working remotely, but the CFL anticipate they will return when feasible. The CFL is using the space, and it is much better located for student traffic. They also launched a Peer Research Consulting Service.
- Art: Sarah Heitkamp, UND Art Curator, created new displays in the 2nd floor study space, and plan to have many more once renovations are complete.
- Reading Room: The Reading Room is in progress, with expected completion by the end of 2020. Asbestos was removed. Insulation was added, and drywall was installed over the bare cinder block walls. New windows were installed. Power and data were upgraded. New flooring is being installed, as are new ceilings and lighting. Painting is nearly complete. Pillars are being covered in attractive wood. Bench seating, with radiant heat, is being created all along the sides. A fireplace has been installed, and its ceramic surround is being completed. Furniture has been purchased and will be added when construction is done.
- One Button Studio: There is an increased need for digital recording studio space, and the CFL are in the process of improving soundproofing and adding equipment to the One Button Studio.
- Access Services: The old, intimidating desk with its peeling veneer has been removed. Circulation has been relocated to the Knowledge Commons. ILL is still handled in the Access Services offices, which are now regular offices.
- Writing Center: The Writing Center moved into new space on the 3rd floor, though the fact that services are temporarily remote has limited use thus far.
- AI/VR/AR/Big Data/Robotics Lab & Studio Space: The High-Performance Computing unit of the Office of Research is partnering with CFL and moving into newly constructed 4-room suite space. This space offers 10 Gigabit throughput for Big Data and visualization projects, equipment for Virtual & Augmented Reality and Robotics, and space and facilities for work on Artificial Intelligence projects. It is led by Aaron Bergstrom, with 2 staff members.

- Skywalk to Nistler: The 2nd floor of Nistler will be joined to the 3rd floor of CFL once their construction is complete. The CFL have had some discussion on art in the skywalk, carpet, and related issues.
- Archives & Special Collections: The CFL were able to replace the damaged original parquet flooring and paint the walls of public spaces, remove all asbestos, install sprinklers and new ceilings and lighting, and purchase new tables, chairs, and 2 bookshelves for the Reading Rooms (public areas) of Archives & Special Collections. The former Reference Desk from the 2nd floor replaced the old Archives Reference Desk. Archives gained much storage space by utilizing the locked, staff-only storage space.
- 4th Floor Conference Room: East Asian artifacts were temporarily removed during construction and have been inventoried and stored as part of UND's permanent art collections. The room was renovated to remove some walls, add capacity, improve facilities for catering, and add permanent a/v equipment (projector, screen). This event space will now hold about 82 people, per Fire Code. A permanent display will be recreated in a higher traffic area, to showcase Chester Fritz's achievements, travels, and contributions to UND.
- Children's & Family Area: Thanks to the generosity of UND VP Cara Halgren, the new Children's & Family Area on the 4th floor will have furniture, a blackboard and other creative equipment, and more. The children's literature collections used by Education and English were amalgamated into one attractive, renovated space. VP Halgren generously donated funding to allow the CFL to buy children's furniture and other accoutrements, to create a space that tells UND faculty, staff, and students who have children that they are welcome.
- Peer Research Consulting: In the Knowledge Commons, the CFL have a service desk for the new Peer Research Consultants (PRCs). PRCs are students intensively trained by librarians Karlene Clark, Kristen Borysewicz (Coordinator of Information Literacy), and Holly Gabriel (Business & Government Documents Librarian) to assist with basic reference questions. They are trained to know when to refer complex questions to librarians. Research on PRC programs elsewhere shows that students who are anxious about approaching a librarian for help are less so about going to a peer. Also, the PRCs benefit from the training. The service has been successful (and feedback encouraging) when they can offer it but have had difficulty staffing public services during COVID.
- Virtual/Remote Services & Pandemic Preparations: The CFL staff worked extremely hard to redesign multiple services to offer them remotely. They also undertook extensive reopening preparations. A committee worked on this (chaired by Sally Dockter, with representation from across campus), and it has been successful – they have been able to remain open and offering almost all services. The only service they have ceased offering is physical reserves, as there is no way to quarantine them when they go out so frequently and are offering e-reserves only. They have added Plexiglas in all public service areas. Instruction is now remote only and is very popular and busy. Reference service is available in person, but also by phone, e-mail, video appointment, and 24/7 chat. Wipes and sanitizer are available throughout the building. They installed signage in collaboration with Facilities and Marketing. They re-purposed Lock-N-Charge lockers for contactless pick-up of physical items; UIT is doing the same for equipment.

- NEH Grant: NEH advertised grants to support the humanities during the pandemic. The Faculty of Arts & Sciences and the CFL worked together to create an application to improve the digital humanities infrastructure in North Dakota, and the grant was successful – one of about 300 out of over 2800 applications. Prof. Crystal Alberts is the PI. In CFL, Zeineb Yousif, Mike Swanson, and Brian Baier are partly funded via the grant; Will Martin and Curt Hanson have also contributed time. There are 4 collections: the Bygdebok site; Nuremberg Trials materials; the William Langer collections; and indigenous collections. Prof. Bill Caraher's HIST 240 class has been involved in digitization as well. The grant will wrap up by the end of December 2020. They do anticipate further work on these collections later, e.g. digital exhibits.
- NARA Grant: UND is a supporting partner on a major National Archives & Records Administration grant, by the Standing Rock Sioux tribe, to digitize materials in the Lakota Language. Zeineb Yousif and Dean Walker have been working with the PI, Elliot Banister, on issues such as consultation on software and possible student assistance. Shelby Harken is providing metadata consultation.
- CFL Website: CFL's redesigned website was launched by Web Services Librarian, Jessica Gilbert Redman, who completed a certificate in web usability and user experience design, and Will Martin, Head of Library Digital Initiatives, Systems, & Services. They worked very closely with the UND web team.
- CFL Staff: Carol Herman and Lois Quamme (Administrative Assistant and Accounts Clerk, respectively) both accepted VSIP and retired on June 30. The CFL redesigned the Administrative Assistant role; Jenny Arends, formerly of the UND Lock Shop, began working over the summer. The CFL did not replace the Accounts Clerk position, and instead moved to using the Shared Services Center, which has been quite successful thus far. Web Services Librarian, Jessica Gilbert Redman, left in late 2019 for a position with SMHS Library Resources. A search for a replacement was successful; Rebecca Brown started on October 1, 2020. Janet Rex, the Distance Services Coordinator and Reference Librarian for several disciplines, also took VSIP and retired on June 30; the CFL redesigned the role somewhat and are beginning a search. Education Librarian, Heather Rogers, resigned from her full-time role pending a move to Canada; she is currently working part-time remotely from her home in New York. The CFL are beginning recruitment for a replacement. After a market adjustment for the salary of a copy cataloger, a third search was successful; Aimee Melicher began working summer 2020. The recruitment for a Social Sciences & Scholarly Communications Librarian to replace Sara Kuhn, who left to begin doctoral studies, was successful; Brittany Fischer began working with in March 2020. The CFL redesigned the vacant position of Library Technology Support Specialist (formerly held by Dan Garner, who accepted a promotion in UIT), and changed it to a Systems Librarian, which is much-needed to support our new ALMA Library Services Platform and other complex library products and services; they are beginning recruitment now.
- Open Educational Resources: OERs continue to be a very successful initiative. In May 2020, the CFL tallied the annual estimate of savings: they have currently saved UND students nearly $11 million, cumulatively, over the past 5 years. In March 2020, Dr. Virginia Clinton-Lisell became the first OERs Faculty Fellow, a position that extended through to the end of that fiscal year, whereupon she received an NDUS OERs Faculty Fellowship. Dean Walker is on the NDUS OERs Advisory Council and recommended to the group that some funding be used to support OERs Faculty Stipends and Faculty Fellowships. The group agreed and advertised these. UND Faculty received 3 Fellowships and 8 OER Stipends. UND also had $58,000 in funding, and after the NDUS funds were distributed, the OERs Working Group advertised a Call for Proposals. The deadline was November 6. The group will get together shortly to evaluate proposals received. The OERs Working Group also heavily promoted 2 webinars offered during Open Access Week (week of October 21, 2020), by Abbey Elder and Dr. Virginia Clinton-Lisell. Dean Walker is also involved in OERs groups with MHEC, WICHE, and a national group. On March 6, NDUS held a statewide OERs Symposium, as UND did in 2016; Dean Walker and Laura Egan, the new Science Librarian, helped organize the conference. A virtual conference is being organized for March 2, 2021; Dean Walker is again helping to organize this. Also, NDUS is working with Follett, TTAaDA, and others to make it possible to show, in Campus Connection, which courses use OERs. This is something CFL and UND Student Government have long advocated. The committee have also begun discussing what sorts of recognition might be possible for faculty who put in so much work on OERs.

- Budget – General: As usual, the challenge of ever-rising collection costs was a major discussion topic. The budget has stabilized and grown somewhat in recent years. However, all academic libraries find themselves in an untenable, unsustainable situation, given that major publishers bundle their resources and raise the prices of the bundles by an average of 6-8% annually. Large library systems – even entire countries – are beginning to cancel bundles, stop working with specific publishers, attempt to renegotiate with publishers under different terms, and/or unbundle resources. This has been a major discussion topic in the Minitex consortium, which includes NDUS. However, publisher consolidations continue, and limit flexibility. The CFL collaborates with all possible consortia to get the best price. (Costs are determined by institution FTEs.) This year, due to the pandemic, some publishers have backed off their usual huge increases – perhaps realizing that if others stick to 0% increases, and they want 5%, a library is more likely to cut their package. But this is a short-term price break. Much work needs to be done, across all academic libraries, to analyze journals usage, ranking, and overall value. The committee and the CFL expect to embark on multiple analyses of the collections in 2020-2021.

This summarizes USLC activities for the academic year 2019-2020.

Respectfully submitted,

Colt Iseminger, Chair, University Senate Library Committee 2019-2021

SENATE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

- Purpose: To provide guidance and oversight by serving in an advisory capacity to the Dean of Libraries and Information Resources regarding library policies and planning and to report to appropriate bodies on library matters.
- Membership: Dean of Libraries and Information Resources or designee (one, non-voting, advisory) Faculty (nine)
Professional librarian (one)

Proposed Faculty Handbook Course Syllabus Policy to be included in Section III: Teaching Policies and Procedures

XIII. Course Syllabi

To assist students, course instructors shall provide access to a course syllabus at the beginning of the semester for all regular on-campus and online courses. The contents of the syllabus should include, where applicable, the following information:

- A. Course information such as course title, course number and semester.
- B. Instructor name, contact information, preferred modes of communication, and if possible, office hours and availability.
- C. The course description, learning goals and outcomes, and Essential Studies goals.
- D. Meeting location(s), time(s) and/or schedule.
- E. Information on required texts and materials.
- F. Information about required examinations, assignments, activities, and projects.
- G. Information on any required participation outside of class meetings, such as field trips, service learning, or other activities and expectations.
- H. Attendance and absence policies.
- I. Final examination or final project date.
- J. Grading scale and grading policies, such as late assignment policies.
- K. Information about, or links to, important University Policies, such as:
  1. Scholastic Honesty and the Code of Student Life
  2. Notice of Nondiscrimination
  3. Disability Services for Students
  4. Reporting Sexual Violence and Faculty Reporting Obligations
  5. Incomplete Grade Policies
  6. Final Examination Policies

Information contained in the course syllabus, may be subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor. Faculty are expected to avoid making significant changes to attendance requirements and grading or scheduling of major assignments and tests as set forth in the original syllabus, unless changes are clearly supported by effective teaching and learning considerations. Faculty are responsible for communicating any such changes to students in a timely manner.

Individual Colleges and Departments may develop additional or alternative guidelines for course syllabi, where appropriate, such as alternative requirements for internships, directed or independent studies, thesis credits, labs, or other unique courses.

The absence of any of these elements does not relieve a student from the responsibility to meet the academic requirements of the course as determined by the instructor.
