August 3, 1946

Hon. John Hamilton
22 Arnold Street
Hartford 6, Connecticut

Dear John:

I have your letter of July 29 this morning and was delighted to hear from you.

There is nothing new on the Garrison Dam project. They have had several meetings with the Indians there but so far nothing has developed. I was up there on June 22, and saw Martin ~~Wess~~, Charlie Burr, but didn't see your friend, Floyd Montclair.

Now while I would very much like to see you when you come down here, the fact is I will be out in North Dakota at that time.

With kind regards I am

Sincerely,

WL df
