Dear Mrs. Winge:

Immediately upon receipt of your letter concerning your property, I contacted the Chief of Engineers to find out what can be done to help you. - X

After discussing this matter with him for some time, it was finally agreed that a representative of the Corps of Engineers out there will come to see you. You can explain to him the difficulty you will have in traveling to Bismarck and also find out from him just what sort of settlement they are prepared to make.

After you have met with the Engineers' representative, be sure you let me know if there is anything further I can do to help you. In accordance with your suggestion, I am contacting the other members of our delegation down here. You will no doubt be hearing from them.

With every good wish and hoping you are well, I am

Sincerely,

WL:kj
