Dear Doctor Fredricks:

This acknowledges your letter of February 5, concerning the discharge of Miss Elizabeth McCleskey from her position as a federal welfare worker at Fort Yates, North Dakota.

I have already contacted the new Secretary of the Interior, demanding a hearing for Miss McCleskey. I agree that there is no evidence anywhere to warrant her summary dismissal.

I intend to keep after the Interior Department until I get results.

Sincerely yours,

USHER L. BURDICK, M. C.
