My dear Mr. Burdick:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter in behalf of Miss Elizabeth McClesky who was separated from her position in the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Decision in Miss McClesky's case has been delayed pending the receipt of additional information which we understand she intends to submit in the near future. Upon the receipt and consideration of that information, her request for a hearing will be determined and your interest in her will not be overlooked.

Sincerely yours,

W Douglas Murray
