Hon. William Langer,
Washington, D. C.

Dear senator Langer:

I wish to ask that you write to John F. McDermott, % Koehlar Hotel, Grand Island, Nebr. he came here last year and we secured for him an option on a few lots for an 80 room hotel, and now there are not hot on the same as they say no telling when the Indians will be removed, It is just too damn bad that rider was attached to the appropriation bill. and isn't there some way whereby this can be made different. So if you will please write to this man explaining the matter in full as to Indians and money also for the dam it may help out considerable. You and I both know that the Interior Dept is very able to care for the Indians. I would fear to enter in and on account of the above. Kindly do this for us here as we are in dire need of a hotel.

get other members to assist in this as well and send me a copy of the letter you pen to Mr McDermott

Yours very truly,

J E Sullivan
