WORK PAPERS

of the

Summer Institute of Linguistics

University of North Dakota

Volume XII

PREFACE

This is the twelfth volume in the annual series of Work Paper of the Summer Institute of Linguistics at the University of North Dakota.

These papers are being made available in pre-publication draft. While several are being included in a very preliminary form, yet we feel that they have considerable linguistic value and will be found interesting to the reader.

Part I consists of two articles, an approach to Kogi (of Columbia) phonemes and a reverse Kogi vocabulary.

Part II consists of a Sherpa Text and dictionary.

Part III is a supplement to the Work Papers, and consists of phonology problems edited by Richard Pittman. An index at the end of the supplement will serve as a key to locating problems in a particular language.

The reader is reminded of the tentative and preliminary nature of these Work Papers, and that they are for private circulation only. Therefore, they may not be reproduced in any form, nor publication use made to them without the express consent of the respective authors.
