Honorable William Langer,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Langer:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter dated 9 November 1945 together with inclosed letter from Mr. E. E. Koenig, Underwood, North Dakota in which the name of "Ashwood" is suggested for the construction village incidental to the Garrison North Dakota project.

The selection of a name for the new village is now under consideration and the name "Ashwood" as suggested by Mr. Koenig will be given full consideration before making final selection.

Mr. Koenig's original letter is being inclosed herewith in accordance with your request. Your continued interest in this project is appreciated.

Sincerely yours
