PREFACE

The nineteenth volume of the Work Papers from the Summer Institute of Linguistics at the University of North Dakota contain papers representing a variety of interests. There are research papers on Koine Greek, English, Sharanahua, and Chewa, as well as two related papers on the theory of word order. This volume also contains a thesis on the phonology of Chimalapa Zoque. The research papers form the first section and the thesis, which is numbered separately and appears in its entirety, forms the second section.

We would like to extend special thanks to Wendy Scruggs and Betty James for typing the manuscript.
