Mr. J. A. Waldron
Waldron and Kerner, Attorneys
7-A First Avenue Southwest
Minot, North Dakota

Dear Mr. Waldron:

This acknowledges your letter of November 11, concerning the mistreatment of the peoples involved in the Garrison Dam removal program.

Congressman Burdick is still in North Dakota, but I am sure that you know he has waged an unrelenting fight against the methods pursued by the Army Engineers in regard to the condemnation of the lands in the taking area and the relocation of the people who will lose their homes.

Mr. Burdick will greatly appreciate your offer of cooperation and support of his attempts to secure justice and proper consideration for these people. As soon as he returns to Washington I shall call your letter to his attention.

Very truly yours,

Laura Page Knudson
