Dear Mr. Doebler:

Your letter of February 19th relative to the medical care of the Indians on the Fort Berthold and Turtle Mountain Reservations has arrived and I want to thank you for writing to me.

I agree with you that something must be done to insure proper medical care for the Indians, and taking the liberty of calling your letter to the special attention of Senator Watkins, Chairman of the Indian Affairs Committee.

It is always a pleasure to hear from you, so whenever you have suggestions to make, or if I can be of service to you, be sure to let me hear from you.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

WL: jat
