Dear Black Dog:

I have been waiting to answer your letter of March 28 until I could have some information to give you in regard to your sister's land. I have called the Department three or four different times, and they always tell me they will let me know what she has to do in a few days. Today I suggested that I am getting tired of so much delay, and they promised to let me know for sure not later than the last of next week.

Just as soon as they let me know exactly what the situation is, I will write you again.

Very truly yours,

Usher L. Burdick, M.C.
