Mr. James Black Dog
Emmet, North Dakota

Dear Mr. Black Dog:

In connection with your request to try to help your sister to get money to put running water into her house in Minot, I have today received a letter from the Fort Berthold Agency the original and one copy of which I enclose so that you may keep one and send the other to her.

I suggest that you follow the recommendations made in the letter and hope that it will be possible to find a solution to your sister's difficulties by so doing.

If there is anything further I can do for you here please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Usher L. Burdick, M. C.
