Dear Martin:

See - Indians
This will acknowledge and thank you for your recent letter in which you enclosed a mimeographed copy of the report of your recent Tribal Council delegation here in Washington. I am very sorry that the volume of work has prevented me from answering your most welcome letter sooner.

As you know, I am always glad to see you and listen to what you have to say so any time you come down here, be sure to feel free to call on me.

With kindest regards and every good wish,
I am

Sincerely,

WL:dgs
