Dear Mr. Follows-the-Road:

With reference to previous correspondence, I have now received a report in response to my inquiry in your behalf from Mr. John Provinse, Acting for the Commissioner, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior.

Mr. Provinse states in his report that your application has not been received from the field office. However, I am awaiting a report from the Area Director relative to this matter, and you may be certain I will write you again when I have a report.

Hoping that you are well and happy, and with kind regards, I am

Sincerely,
